Filled With Brief Mention of Many Minor Events of Vesterday.

Chas. A. Bucky was excused yesterday from J. R. Bronton was arrested yesterday morn ing for stealing a horse and wagon from S. A. Haeth.

Robert Jones was fined $5 in the police court yesterday for holding Alice Boone while Mrs. Jones pounded her in the face.

A gasoline stove expleded in Mrs. Payne's house, 1731 Seventeenth street, Thursday afternoon, but no damage was done. The charge of cruelty to saimals against Frank Brown, the colored man who was found with three fighting cocks in a bag at 4 o'clock in the merning, some days ago, was dismissed in the police court yesterday.

A communication was sent to the commis-sioners by the Washington Gaslight company asking permission to lay a number of gas mains in different parts of the city. Per-mission has been granted in each case.

Monday night last burglars entered the shop of Mr. C. C. Anderson, machinist, on Twelfth street, near B, by the use of a jimmy, and carried away some tools which are con-venient for burglars to have about them.

William Moten and Robert Harrison have william Moten and Konert Harrison have been appointed additional privates on the police force by the commissioners to do duty in and about the Fifth Baptist church on Vermont evenue between Q and R streets, without compensation from the district.

A desperate looking colored man named William Lee was in the police court yesterday on a charge of carrying a kuife sharpened on both edges, which he drew on a white man in front of the President's grounds Thursday. The kuife was exhibited. The highest penalty of the law. 850, was imposed. alty of the law, $50, was imposed.

Hon. J. H. Rice, administrator of the estate of George L. Hammeken, deceased, has filed his final report showing that the remainder of the award of the Mexican-American claims commission—($27,043.97)—had been transferred to Hon. George L. Hammeken y Mexia, son and sole heir. The report was approved.

A colored cart driver named Sonny Mack was tried in the police court yesterday for stealing half a cord of wood from Arthur B. Smith. The evidence showed that the prisoner was in the habit of getting wood from the defendant's yard by false pretenses and disposing of it for his own benefit. He got thirty days.

The district commissioners have issued an order that the order of Dec. 3, 1883, establishing additional backstands, be amended so as to allow four instead of two vehicles at the stand on the north side of M, between Connecticut avenue and Eighteenth street northwest subject to the conditions of said order. west, subject to the conditions of said order of Dec. 3, 1883.

A colored couple entered the city hall yestorday, and wanted an immediate divorce. The wife claimed that she had been treated with crueity and non-support. She was afraid that he would kill her. The husband was willing to give her a divorce, stating that she was very jealous. They were directed to consult a lawyer, as a divorce was not granted for the mere asking.

Charles Boswell, one of the sailors recently tried for robbing the dead bodies which were picked up from the wreck of the City of Co-lumbus, was yesterday tried in the police court for assault with intent to kill Matthew Quigley. The case was continued indefi-nitely; bonds $1,000. Mr. Quigley is unable as yet to leave his bed on account of the in-juries received. Boswell's brother, John, is still at large.

Mayor Edson, of New York, accompanied by Comptroller Grant, Commissioner of Public Works Thompson, Aqueduct Commissioners Spencer, Dowd, and Baldwin, Engineers Church, Newton, and Fletey, with Mr. Parker, who have been the guests of the commissioners for a few days past, left for Baltimore yesterday. During their stay they visited the water works extension and called on the Fresident.

A New play is about to be produced entitled "What small he do with it?" Well, if "it" is a bottle of Dr. Buil's Cough Sytup, he'd better take a spoonful three times a day until he get rid of his cough or cold.

The Hodoarriers.

The master masons' committee have secured twenty-two hodesrriers, the most of whom are white, from Norfolk, and in a few days expect thirty from Chambersburg, Pa., to supply the demand occasioned by the strike of the Hodearriers' union. With the aid of housting apparatus the bosses think they can get through the season. It is thought, however, that the demand cannot be supplied, and that the hodcarriers will eventually win.

The Handsomest American Vineyard. The Handsomest American Vineyard. Mr. Alfred Speer, of Passaic, N. J., has been long and tavorably known as the pioneer Grape Grower of America. His Vineyards at Passaic, N. J., are the handsomest in the country, and contain 275 niles of wire stretched on posts. At the season of the year when the grapes are being gathered for the press, it will repay one for a viait. Mr. Speer's Wires are used in the leading hospitals of the country. You can get it at druggists.

A Clerical Fraud.

For a few days past a clerical looking youth has been going among the Catholic residents of East Washington offering for sale Catholic books and trinkets at a high figure and representing himself as a student for the priest-hood, and authorized to sell by certain pas-tors of the city. Father O'Sullivan, of St. Peter's, when informed of the matter, pro-nounced the young man a fraud.

To all who are suffering from the errors and in-discretions of youth, nervous weakness, early de-cay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you, free of charge. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev. Joseph T. Inman, Station D. New York City.

Settling a Strike.

The work of plastering St. Patrick's church was suspended yesterday on account of a little trouble between the union hodcarriers and Mr. Brierly, the contractor, on account of his having some non-union men at work. The difficulty has been adjusted and the men will return as soon as work is resumed on

The exhibition and sale of art embroideries nov being held at the "Richmond," corner of H and Seventeenth streets, will continue through Saun-day, closing at 6 o'clock Saturday evening. This exhibition is a wonder in the way of needlework, including work from the designs of Wm. Morris, Samuel Colman, Rosina Emmett, and other well known artists.

A Youthful Tramp. A colored boy about 10 years of age, named Larry Coleman, was in the police court yes terday on a charge of being a tramp and sleeping in the streets at night. He stated that he had a home in Virginia, and was let off after promising to go home. He expects
